A Time for Laughter

Will Rogers' Quotes

Never miss a good chance to shut up.

The problem in America isn't so much what people don't know; the problem is what people think they know just ain't so.

I know that worrying works, because none of the stuff I worried about ever happened.

The taxpayers are sending congressman on expensive trips abroad. It might be worth it except they keep coming back.

Common sense ain't common.

Too many people spend money they haven't earned to buy things to impress people they don't like.

Don't let yesterday use up too much of today.

The older we get, the fewer things seem worth waiting in line for.

A man that don't love a horse, there's something wrong with him.

I maintain that it should cost as much to get married as it does to get divorced. That would make the preachers financially independent like it has the lawyers.

Why don't they pass a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting anybody from learning anything? If it works as good as Prohibition did, in five years we will have the smartest people on earth.

The Twisted Tongue

I got a date at a quarter to eight with Kate at the garden gate. I won't be late for my Kate date at the gate at a quarter to eight.

Winter, slippy, drippy, rippy.

Quotes to Note

God is very patient with us when we are desperate. Pour out your soul to Him.

Prayer – though it is often draining, even an agony – is in the long term the greatest source of power that is possible.

~ Tim Keller
